

ROBB WONG

Government Contracting Growth Strategist

Former SBA Associate Administrator Deep Water Point & Associates: 0-$10M Sector | Federal Bar Association, Chair – Small and Socially Disadvantaged Businesses | Founder, FedSolve, LLC

Robb Wong has more than 40 years of experience in federal small business contracting as an SBA attorney, government contractor, senior federal official, and advisor to small businesses and industry.

Robb began his career supporting one of the nation's earliest 8(a) companies in 1978 and later served as an attorney in SBA Headquarters General Counsel from 1987–1993, where he authored core 8(a) eligibility and compliance regulations. In the private sector, he founded and successfully exited his own 8(a) company and has spent decades building, operating, and advising SBA-certified government contractors. 2026 RNW Bio SBAFBA

From 2017–2020, Robb served as the White House-appointed Associate Administrator for Government Contracting & Business Development at the U.S. Small Business Administration. In that role, he worked with the White House, Congress, DoD, federal agencies, and more than 3,000 federal buying activities on small business contracting policy and implementation. His work included development of the modern SBA Mentor-Protégé Program, formalization of the WOSB certification program, and initiation of the transfer of VA's SDVOSB certification program to SBA.

Robb received the 2019 SECAF Government Advocate of the Year Award for his work supporting the federal small business contracting community.

Today, through FedSolve, Robb advises small businesses, Native-owned enterprises, and industry partners on SBA regulatory compliance, growth, strategic teaming, and federal contracting strategy. His current work includes extensive analysis of SBA size standards and proposed changes to those standards, including their impact on existing small businesses, growing and graduating firms, federal acquisition, and competition within the government contracting marketplace. His focus is uniquely

Robb brings a distinctive perspective to SBA size standards and federal small business policy: he has helped write SBA regulations, administered SBA's federal contracting programs, built and operated small government contractors, and now advises the businesses that must compete under those rules.
