Bio:

Michael Ricciardi
CEO | GovCon Leader | Systems and Technology Innovator

Michael Ricciardi is a recognized leader in the Government Contracting (GovCon) industry with over four decades of experience building, scaling, and leading successful technology companies. As Managing Partner and CEO of Domenix Corporation, Michael specializes in delivering cutting-edge systems engineering and information solutions for Department of Defense (DOD) programs, including Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear Defense (CBRN) initiatives.

Michael's entrepreneurial journey includes founding and leading Ricciardi Technologies, Inc. (RTi), Domain X Technologies (DXT) and now Domenix Corporation, three industry-leading firms providing critical technology and consulting services to federal agencies and Fortune 1000 clients. Under his leadership, RTi grew into a premier provider of embedded systems, enterprise integration, and defense solutions, serving customers such as IBM Federal, Lockheed Martin, Raytheon, and Northrop Grumman. The company was successfully acquired by Science Dynamics (a public company) in 2006, where Michael served as COO and drove organizational consolidation and growth strategies.

After RTi, Michael joined DXT with his wife Marie and help grow and eventually sell, the System Engineer practice in Chem/Bio Defense to ANSER in 2018.
