Description (Open to SECAF members only. Join now – here.)

Qualifications: SECAF's Award of Excellence will be awarded to a company that has shown a compelling and profound commitment to excellence within its community, the government contracting industry, and towards its employees during 2024 as measured by the criteria listed below.

- Applicants must have an active SECAF Membership.
- All applicants/businesses must be headquartered/based in Virginia, Maryland or District of Columbia.
- Applications must be completed by someone who is employed by the company.
- Comparative evaluations of companies of different sizes against one another will be based upon performance by a company in relative comparison to its own respective peer set.

Criteria: Up to five finalists will be selected based upon the special qualitative attributes of the company and its unique traits that differentiate it from its peers. Responses should address the questions that follow within the word limits stated.

Disqualification: SECAF, in its sole discretion, reserves the immediate and unrestricted right to disqualify any finalist or winner if it (or any of its directors, officers, members, employees, or agents) commits or has committed any act or has been involved or becomes involved in any situation or occurrence which SECAF deems likely to reflect unfavorably upon SECAF in any way. If such information is discovered, SECAF may rescind the finalist designation or award at any time. Decisions of SECAF are final and binding in all matters related to such disqualification.

Confidentiality:

SECAF will hold in confidence and will not disclose to third-parties any of the nominated company's proprietary information, except as such disclosure or use may be required in connection with the awards gala, including disclosure to the selection committee, the judges' panel, and any applicable vendors or agents utilized to compile the information.
